"Snake in the Grass" is the 1st adventure in the Lunar Resort Adventure Series. These free adventures are presented as card adventures to insert into your campaign or expand into a full length adventure. Presented in a Full Color 4 Panel Adventure Card including a two page adventure outline, map, and key illustration.

The tradition of the "walkabout" was as old as the village. Young men and women had to do something to prove their worth to the tribe. Many a time the task was something easy like building a house or hunting for and bringing back a large predator. Some foolish groups had planned for and decided to head north into the Dead Lands. Those that knew of the large lake up north figured all they had to do was walk around that lake to prove their worth. They were mistaken.
